WHAT IS LOVE?

[Evansville Courier.] True love is truth, and truth is love Love will have fuith that love is love.

In eyes of love tuli beaming True love must love-be met by love. Or love will leave with sorrow, Love cannot stay where is not love-

Love will not semblance borrow Ah! love must live in confidence, Love cannot cherish anger; Love must be blessed in blessedness

To strife love is a stranger. True love will love through morrow

Love only knows that love is love. Eternity alone proves love-Love knows no changing sorrow; True love is love, and naight but love.
